ATTORNEYS IN NEW SOUTH WALES AND THE AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY

The U.S. Consulate General assumes no responsibility or liability for the professional ability or reputation of, or the quality of services provided by, the following persons or firms. Inclusion on this list is in no way an endorsement by the Department of State or the U.S. Consulate. Names are listed alphabetically, and the order in which they appear has no other significance. The information in the list on professional credentials, areas of expertise and language ability are provided directly by the lawyers; the Consulate is not in a position to vouch for such information. You may receive additional information about the individuals on the list by contacting the local bar association (or its equivalent) or the local licensing authorities. For a more comprehensive list of Attorneys, may wish to contact the Law Society.

- The Law Society of NSW - (02) 9373-7300
- The Law Society of the ACT - (02) 6247-5700

If you cannot afford an attorney the Legal Aid Commission may be able to assist you. If your matter is specifically related to an Australian Immigration issue, you may wish to contact the Immigration Advice and Rights Centre (IARC). They can be contacted at:

- NSW - (02) 9219-5000 or at <http://www.legalaid.nsw.gov.au>
- ACT - (02) 6243-3411 or at <http://www.legalaidact.org.au>
- NSW IARC - (02) 8234 0799 or at <http://www.iarc.asn.au>

The following guidelines may be helpful:

Contact several attorneys, briefly describe the nature of the services you desire, and find out the attorney's qualifications and experience. Ask for a written schedule of fees charged for the services you need. Do not turn over documents or funds until you are certain the attorney understands your legal needs and will handle your case.

When dealing with your attorney find out how the attorney plans to represent you. Ask specific questions and expect the attorney to explain the legal process and the legal activities planned on your behalf, in a language you understand. Have your attorney analyze your case and give you the positive and negative aspects and probable outcome. Tell the attorney every relevant fact needed to represent your interests. Ask your attorney to keep you advised of the process of your case according to a pre-established schedule. Request copies of all letters and documents prepared on your behalf.

If the services of your attorney prove unsatisfactory, contact the Legal Services Commission of New South Wales on (02) 9233-9176.
